

“Personal Perspectives” by Main Gallery Artists
September 5 – October 19, 2019

The Heritage Art Gallery at the Tulare Historical Museum is happy to announce the opening of our newest exhibit "Personal Perspectives" with a reception for the Main Gallery Artists Thursday, September 5 from 5:00 - 7:00 pm. It is open to the public and free of charge.

Starting out in 2010 as an art gallery located at 209 Main Street in Visalia, Main Gallery Artists have transformed into an innovative group of artists committed to enriching the community through various forms of art. Through group and solo exhibitions at various venues around the area, Main Galley Artists feature an evolving variety of media that includes acrylic, oil, watercolor, photography, collage, mixed media, gourds, basket weaving, and many more. Along with workshops and other community art events, the artists work to promote and celebrate the talent and diversity of Tulare County. In addition, Main Gallery Artists work with companies and organization to help promote their events by combining artists and art with fundraising and marketing.

Nine years later, the Main Gallery Artists continue to change and grow with the talents brought together by its new members and their love for the Arts.

"Personal Perspectives" runs through October 19, 2019 during THM hours of operation and admission to the Heritage Art Gallery is always free.
